

In this issue...

Canada Post has printed two rhododendron stamps. Page 137.

Read the story of the last living ARS founding member. Page 164.

John Thornton has registered the name of one of his crosses 'Honey Creek'. Page 175.

Table of Contents

Features

- 123 The Trott Garden on Canterbury Plains, New Zealand BY FRANCES BURNS
One of the South Island's premier gardens featuring year-round beauty
- 128 Wallace and the Origin of Species BY M.J. HARVEY
An obscure botanist beats Darwin to the theory of evolution
- 130 The Word: Transpiration BY BRUCE PALMER
Why a plant needs more than twenty times as much water as a mammal
- 131 Fertility of Neopolyploid Rhododendron and Occurrence of Unreduced Gametes in Triploid Cultivars BY JEFF R. JONES AND THOMAS G. RANNEY
Research to better understand the reproductive behavior of polyploids
- 136  Tips for Beginners:
Azalea Stem Borers BY CYNTHIA DICKINSON
Understanding the life cycle of a nasty pest
Glyphosate with Surfactants and Bark Splitting BY MARTY FINKEL
A warning when using a herbicide with glyphosate
- 137 Rhododendrons Recognized on Canadian Stamps BY DAVE GODFREY AND GUS CERINI
Canada Post chooses rhododendrons for two stamps
- 139 Rhododendrons in Penn's Woods, ARS Eastern Regional Conference BY JOAN AND REID WARREN
A preview of the upcoming conference in Lionville, Pennsylvania
- 141 The Glenn Dale Azaleas: A History as Told by The Azalean, Part IV INTRODUCTION BY WILLIAM C. MILLER III
The Glenn Dale story continues with the beginning of the Ten Oaks Project
- 159 A Reassessment of the Rhododendron verticillatum Low ex Lindl. Complex with a New Species, R. atrichum Argent and Two Subspecies, subsp. atrichum and subsp. dendrolepis (Argent) Argent BY GEORGE ARGENT
A discussion of a new species, R. atrichum, and two subspecies
- 162 Regional Musings: E-I-E-I-O! BY DAVE ECKERDT
A whimsical account of three favorite rhododendrons in the Eckerdt garden
- 164 Robbie Robinson: ARS Founding Member BY GLEN JAMIESON
The horticultural life of the last living ARS founding member
- 166 Per Wendelbo: a Norwegian Plant Hunter BY OLE JONNY LARSEN
A plant explorer who reintroduced two rare rhododendrons to the West

Society News

- 144 Gold Medal: Jens Christian Birck
- 144 Gold Medal: Mike Stewart
- 144 Silver Medal: Jean & Norman Beaudry
- 145 Silver Medal: Harry R. Wright
- 145 Bronze Medal Awards
- 146 In Memoriam: B. Frank Heuston
- 146 In Memoriam: Roy Donald Hurlbert
- 146 In Memoriam: Freda Olivia Johnson
- 146 In Memoriam: Ruth Kees
- 146 In Memoriam: Robert Levack
- 147 Eastern Regional Conference
- 151 Western Regional Conference
- 154 ARS Program Library
- 156 Briggs Nursery Challenges Chapters to Grow!

- 156 Changing of the Guard
- 157 Research Foundation Update
- 157 Photographers Needed!
- 157 Rhododendron Calendar
- 158 Individual Donors to the ARS
- 176 New Members

Publications

- 169 ARS Register of Plant Names and Checklist—Summer 2009 Supplement

Cover Photos

Clockwise from top left: Autumn fog in the Trott garden by Alan Trott; 'Rhein's Luna' by Mimi Favre; R. collettianum by Siegmund-W. Breckle; R. atrichum ssp. atrichum by Lynsey Wilson; R. fortunei by Dave Eckerdt.